On February 24, 2007, Rosario Leon Guerrero was arrested for the offense of Possession of a Schedule II Controlled Substance. Guam Police Department Report Number 07-5599, outlined the offense as follows:

On February 24, 2007, Guam Police Department Officers while on Ysengsong Road, observed a 1992 Nissan Sentra drifting from the outer lane. A traffic stop was conducted and the operator, Rosario Leon Guerrero was asked to take a standard field sobriety test. Upon exiting the vehicle, Ms. Leon Guerrero was observed wrapping a jacket around her waist. The officer asked her to remove the jacket and she tossed it to the back seat. A search of the backseat yielded what appeared to be a fabricated glass pipe, used for smoking ice. She was patted down and a 2 ½ straw, cut at both ends, with suspected methamphetamine, and suspected marijuana seeds were retrieved from her pocket. Ms. Leon Guerrero was transported to Hagatna Precinct for further investigations.

Ms. Leon Guerrero was arrested for the offense of Possession of a Schedule II Controlled Substance. She was booked and released, and was provided a notice to appear in the Superior Court of Guam on February 17, 2010 at 9:00 a.m.

Ms. Leon Guerrero is under dual supervision with the U.S. Probation Office and Superior Court of Guam and has consistently tested negative for the use of controlled substances. A drug test was conducted on February 27, 2007 by the Superior Court of Guam Probation Office and was negative for the use of controlled substances. She continues to participate in substance abuse treatment.
